A tip of the promotional hat to the folks at ONEHOPE Wine and Cachet Homes!

This week, Cachet Homes will host a special event – Scottsdale Canadian Appreciation Day – where City of Scottsdale Mayor Jim Lane will visit Cachet's Encore at Grayhawk community to make the proclamation and famed Canadian real estate expert Dale Walters will be launching his first book, "Buying Real Estate in the US: The Concise Guide for Canadians."

ONEHOPE Wine will be pouring their varietals, which are all for amazing causes from fighting breast cancer to autism research, throughout the event.

Why, you ask?

With more than 600,000 Canadians in Arizona each year for often months at a time, ONEHOPE Wine has found A LOT of new fans in our friends from the north. Similarly, Cachet Homes is seeing some great boosts in the local real estate economy from all of the Canadians coming into sun-soaked Arizona to buy new homes.

The event will play host to members of the Canada-Arizona Business Council as well as Canadian part-time and full-time residents. Everyone in attendance will be treated to ONEHOPE Wine; tours of Cachet's most popular Scottsdale homes some of their favorite hors d'œuvres; a gift bag with goodies ranging from Circle K (Arizona's largest Canada-related business) treats to Popchips to “Bakd” Bars; and, of course, a signed copy of Walters' book.

“ONEHOPE Wine is thrilled to support Canadians in Scottsdale Appreciation Day,” said Kristen Stroyer, vice president of ONEHOPE Wine. “We thank the Canadian community for all they have done for our local market, and their generosity throughout the world as well as Cachet Homes for dreaming up such a fabulous event and Walters for letting be a part of his special day.”
